

Poster

Maria R. Osuna Alarcón

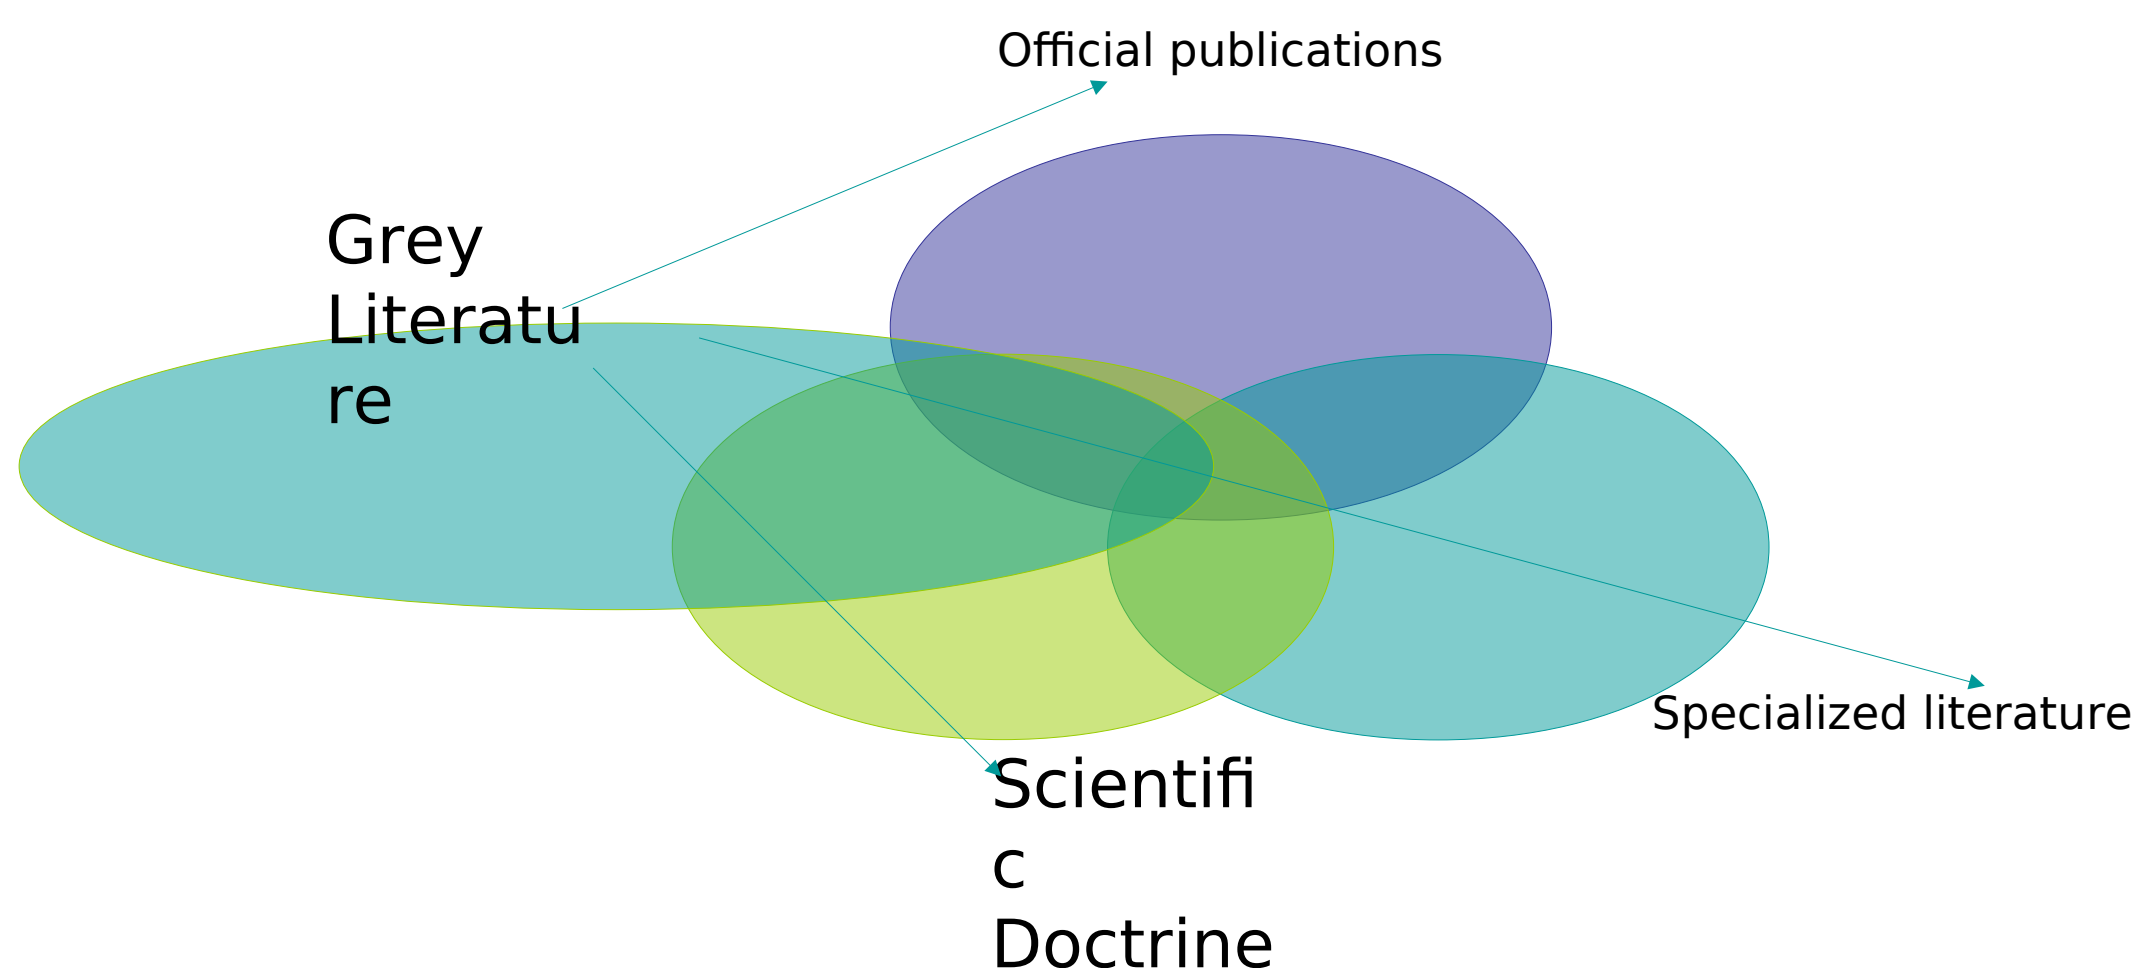

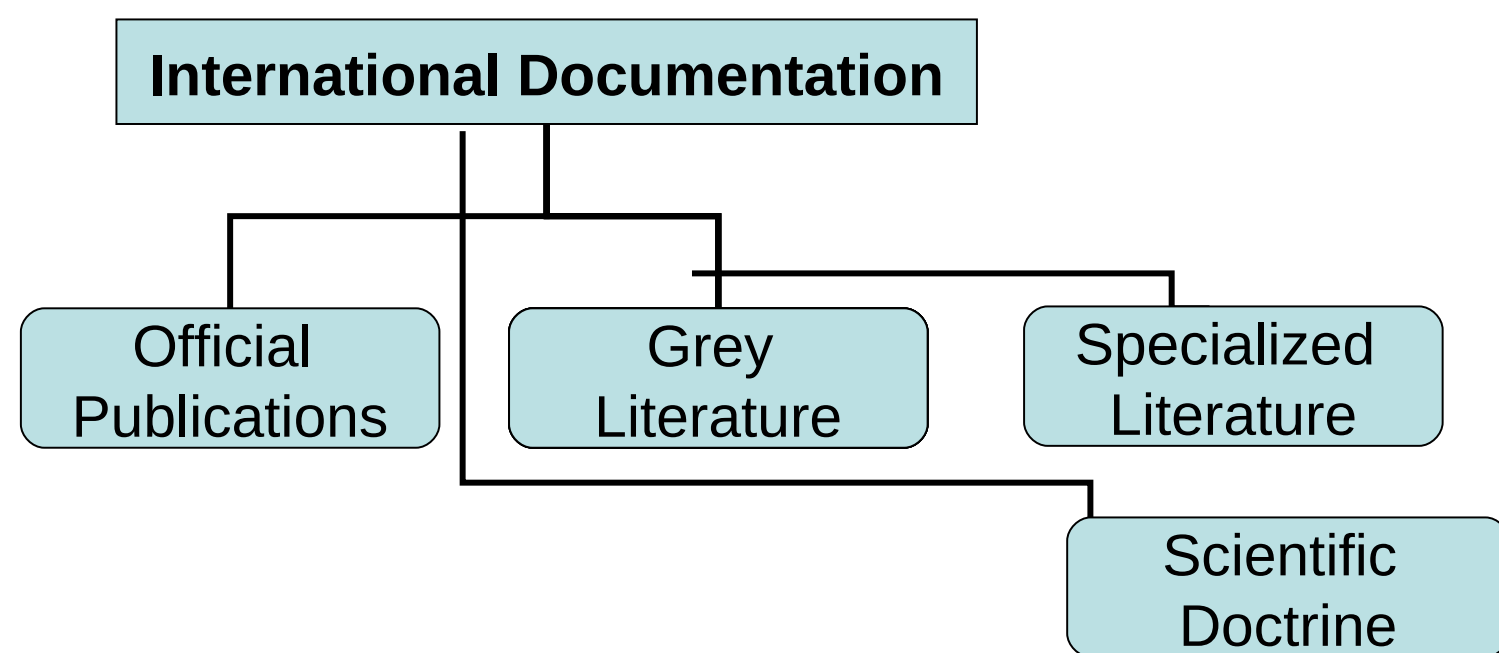

osuna@usal.es Salamanca University,
Spain

<http://www.usal.es>

Ninth International Conference on
Grey Literature 10-
11 December
2007, Antwerp,
Belgium

International Organizations & Grey Literature GL9, 2007

Responds to user needs for all in one place.

Print content categories and formats no longer restrict publishing options.

Utilizes expertise of libraries, IT, and publishers.

Rethink categories of traditional print publications.

Develop content in response to scholars' research, teaching, collaboration, and publishing needs.

Organizations Content intelligence

Collaboration services transformation

Process automation for a New Library services

Repository services that lead innovation on International Organizations

Multilingual

Participatory - national & international "Input Centers"

Centralized open access bibliographic database in grey literature, about 3 million records

Support from IO- coordination, tools, methods, data processing, training, technical support.

M. Rosario Osuna Alarcón.
osuna@usal.es

Salamanca University, Spain

<http://www.usal.es>

