

GreyNet International Welcomes Change for Growth in 2020

Since its relaunch in 2003, the Grey Literature Network Service has operated under the legal and fiscal entity of TextRelease. During these more than 15 years, GreyNet has experienced increased and sustained growth in the information resources it provides those both within and outside the field of grey literature. To accommodate further growth, enhance its existing resources, and rise to challenges required for innovation, GreyNet powered by TextRelease will outsource its International Conference Series on Grey Literature starting in 2020.

2003 – 2019

2020

International Conference Series on Grey Literature

Conference Lifecycle and Workflow
Milestones and Deliverables

GreyNet as an international organization and corporate author to its serial publications under TextRelease will continue with these activities. Likewise, all partnerships, licensed agreements, and contracts undertaken by TextRelease on behalf of GreyNet will remain in effect. The work by GreyNet's Resource Policy Committee, Social Media Publishing Committee, and Education and Training Committee will also remain intact. GreyNet likewise welcomes representation on the GL-Conference Program Committee that will be outsourced to new management commencing with GL2020.

GreyNet